SALEM FREE PUBLIC LIBRARY.

The twenty-eighth annual report of the trustees is herewith presented:

The past year has been one of success for the institution, and the trustees feel that the library is reaching the reading public of the community in a larger measure than ever before.

There has been a recent call for the extension of the library service to District No. 8, where there are many families who desire library privileges, and if suitable arrangements can be made books will be sent to this section the present year.

During the year repairs have been made at the library at a cost of approximately one hundred dollars. The cost of repairs was taken from the library appropriation, lessening the amount available for the purchase of books and other library expenses. Painting and other repairs will soon be needed, but may be deferred until another season, on account of the high cost of material and labor.

We have a large list of monthly magazines in constant demand by the patrons for home reading as well as for the reading tables at the library, which are ever a place of interest to the young people especially, and to many of the older patrons.

A good number of well-selected books has been added the past year, but under present conditions and high prices of publications, funds have not been available for the selection of many books desirable, especially non-fiction and books of reference. We would recommend an appropriation of $500 for library expenses the present year.

Grateful appreciation is extended to Edward E. Kelly, Joel D. Bean and Miss Emma F. Coburn, for the many volumes of books presented to the library, and to all others who have contributed in any way to the success of the institution.

Respectfully submitted,

EZRA B. HALL,
MURRAY F. SMITH,
DANIEL A. ABBOTT,
Trustees of Salem Free Public Library.

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT.

To the School Committee and Citizens of Salem:

GENTLEMEN: I herewith submit my fourth annual report, the seventeenth in the series of superintendents' reports.

During the year Miss Ella Sundell resigned from No. 9, and the year was finished by Miss Mildred Hanson of Kingston and Miss Della Young of Sandown as substitutes. Miss Marion Wingate resigned from No. 1 primary and Mrs. Aphia Bailey of Salem Center was selected to the position.

At the end of the year in June Miss Marion McLellan, after four years of splendid work, resigned from the principalship of the Depot School. Miss Laura Joy of the Center Grammar School was transferred to this position. Miss Marjorie Gordon, a graduate of Plymouth, with two years' experience in New Boston, was elected to the Center Grammar School. Miss Eunice Lanagan was transferred from No. 3 to No. 7 and Miss Erdine Richards elected to No. 3 and Miss Amy Ackerman transferred from No. 7 to No. 5, to take the place of Mrs. Hickson, resigned.

Miss Meserve resigned from No. 4 and Miss Caroline Thayer was elected to fill her place. Miss Marion McMaster and Miss Helen Crowley resigned from No. 6. Miss Vera Wood was transferred from No. 8 to Miss McMaster's place and Miss Lura Hall placed in charge of the primary school. Miss Marion Turner, a graduate of Plymouth, with a year's experience in the schools of Bethlehem, was elected to the grammar school at No. 8. Miss Mina Valentine resigned from the primary school at No. 8 and Miss Florence Kenney of Lawrence, a graduate of the Lowell Normal, was elected to this place. Miss Helen Richardson of Methuen was elected to the vacancy at No. 9.

These changes took Miss Hall from the Domestic Arts work, and so far we have found no one to take this place.

From the above it will be seen that an unusual number of changes occurred this year, and while we lost some exceedingly valuable teachers, the new ones have taken up the work with such vigor that the standards of instruction have been maintained and in some schools very much improved. We have a corps of teachers who are faithful, energetic, conscientious, of whom the district may feel proud.

During the past three years the school population of the Depot section of the district has been steadily increasing, and with the opening of the new industries that are to open in the spring, a still greater increase is to be expected. The building at the Depot is filled beyond its proper capacity. While 35 is the greatest number of pupils any teacher can care for with justice to the children, some of the rooms have registered 50 this year. Some provision must be made at once to relieve the situation here. This question should be taken up in relation to that of a high school.

I desire to call attention to my report of one year ago, as well as to every report for a number of years, regarding a high school. In this connection it should be kept in mind that the Methuen High School has increased its tuition rates from $50 a year to $75. This increase, together with the $1,500 voted at the district meeting a year ago towards paying the cost of conveyance of high school pupils, brings the cost of our approximately 60 high school pupils to about $6,000, a sum that would go far toward running a school of our own.

Below is a list of schools in the state in towns approximately the size of Salem showing the registration for the year ending August 31, 1920, and the sums appropriated to carry the same through the year. I do not have the figures for this year, but assume that the cost would be considerably higher.

Alton, 41,	$3,500
Amherst, 30,	3,222
Antrim, 32,	3,500

Hopkinton (6 yr.), 69,	5,000
Henniker (6 yr.), 75,	4,000
Jaffrey, not given,	6,500
Meredith (6 yr.), 107,	5,021
New Market, 54,	3,500
Peterborough, 74,	5,826
Walpole (6 yr.), 88,	5,187

Haverhill, 57,	3,725

My recommendation is that immediate steps be taken looking towards the providing of a suitable building and the establishment of a six-year high school on the plan provided by the state program for secondary schools.

We have had one year of the operation of the new education law and have found it good. It has in a large number of towns increased the number of weeks of school in some cases as many as 10 to 13, and has enabled these districts to pay a salary sufficient to secure a teacher of at least fair ability. It has brought about a vast improvement in the physical condition in a great many school buildings. It has so equalized the heavy burden of taxation during this period of inflated costs that the towns and cities of wealth or business activity have been made to help carry the load of the small weak towns. Last year Salem received from the state for school purposes $3,503.48, and for the present year the sum of $4,219.16 has been approved.

The law has secured greater uniformity of standards of work and equipment in the elementary schools and thereby more uniform results. It has put the educational work of the state on a broad, general business basis that will result in economy in the administration of expenditure of school money and in securing better results for the money expended.

The extreme severity of the weather last winter rendered it impossible to visit the schools as often or as regularly as usual. The depth of snow would not permit the use of an automobile, and electric cars ran on a two-hour schedule or stood on the rails waiting for power, or a crew of shovelers. In one case I made two unsuccessful attempts to visit one school in the supervisiory district, spending an entire day, from 6.30 a. m. till 7 p. m. on each attempt. My third attempt was a success, but I had spent three whole days in making one visit.

This is not a complaint, but an explanation that I feel is due the cause of supervision. I find from the records that I made in all 734 visits during the year, an average of 4.4 visits for each day the schools were in session.

During the past year teachers found it very difficult to arouse interest in garden work. Very indifferent response was given to efforts made. This work is valuable, but it cannot be made at all successful without the hearty support of the parents and the community. I am hoping for more interest and better results this year.

During the summer No. 4 school at North Salem was remodelled and made to conform to the requirements of the State Board of Education. The floors of the toilets and basement were cemented and put into good condition. The toilets at No. 7 were cemented and repaired, and general repairs made at No. 9.

I desire to call attention to the report of the music supervisor, Miss Eva A. Williams, and that of Miss Fisk, instructor in manual training.

There is no other part of a child's education of greater importance than his music, and in this subject Miss Williams is doing excellent work and securing splendid results.

Miss Fisk is getting fine work from her boys in manual training. These subjects should receive more encouragement from parents.

For the support and co-operation given me in my work, I extend my thanks to school, committee, citizens and teachers.

JAMES A. MacDOUGALL,
Superintendent of Schools.

REPORT OF MUSIC INSTRUCTOR.

To the Superintendent and School Board of Salem, N. H.:

I herewith present my fourth annual report as supervisor of music in the Salem schools.

The course of study remains unchanged, the children being taught how to sing tunefully by imitation and rote songs in the first grade. Hollis Dann Music Course, Book II, is used for this particular work. The second, third and fourth grade pupils are becoming familiar with key signatures and time figures.

Changed voices at No. 8 and the Depot have made four-part singing possible this year. At the Center, No. 5 and No. 4, part singing is being successfully carried on.

The Hollis Dann Music Course was introduced at the Depot in the fall of 1920. We find this course very satisfactory, and hope to use it in more of the Salem schools next year.

In November, 1920, the teacher and pupils of the grammar grades at No. 8 decided to earn money to purchase an organ. The organ was purchased in less than a month, and used at the Christmas exercises. A piano was given to the Depot School in the fall of 1920, and has been a great help in the chorus work. The pupils earned money and purchased a victrola, which will be a source not only of much pleasure to the children, but also of training in genuine musical appreciation and knowledge.

With the natural capacity of the Salem children along musical lines, which seems to me to be markedly good, and with the ability and faithfulness of the teachers, I can plainly see yearly progress. Again I wish to thank these teachers for their help in making my work a success.

Respectfully submitted,

EVA A. WILLIAMS.

REPORT OF THE MANUAL TRAINING DEPARTMENT.

During the year the attendance has been very regular, and this is the more noteworthy when the long distances some of the boys come is taken into consideration, the schools represented being the Center, Depot, Millville, No. 8, No. 7, and No. 9. The number of pupils has increased; the number enrolled last year to June, 1920, was thirty; the enrollment this fall is forty. Although from October, 1919, to June, 1920, we had three class periods as against two in previous years, we found the room rather too small for the most efficient work. Conditions this fall necessitated the forming of four classes, but even now, owing to unavoidable grouping, one class is crowded. The matter of expansion in floor space should be taken into consideration.

The course of instruction followed is the same as in previous years, the use and care of common tools, making of common joints and the use and appropriateness of certain finishes, as stained, oiled, varnished, rubbed, and natural finishes. The projects themselves, owing to the high price of lumber, have been smaller in size, but the same principles of construction have been involved as in former years. Greater emphasis has been laid on working drawings of a simple kind, and much of the good quality of the work is due to the grade teachers, as the finished drawing had to be made in the school room.

Short lessons have been given on kinds of lumber commonly used for cabinet work, methods of logging, milling, etc.

Among the projects were stationary boxes, desk sets, tool chests, hall trees, skiis, desks, tabourets, fern stands, toy furniture, towel racks, etc.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY A. FISK,
Instructor.
